1. POLICY STATEMENT

- 1.1 Consider Creative is committed to promoting equality of opportunity for all our staff and job applicants. We aim to create a working environment in which all individuals are able to make best use of their skills, free from discrimination or harassment and in which all decisions are based on merit.
- 1.2 We do not discriminate against our staff on the basis of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation (protected characteristics).
- 1.3 The principles of non-discrimination and equality of opportunity also apply to the way in which our staff treat visitors, clients, customers, suppliers and former staff members.
- 1.4 All our staff have a duty to act in accordance with this policy and treat colleagues with dignity at all times, and not to discriminate against or harass other members of our staff, regardless of their status.
- 1.5 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and may be amended at any time.

2. WHO IS COVERED BY THE POLICY?

This policy covers all individuals working at all levels and grades, including senior managers, officers, directors, employees, consultants, contractors, trainees, homeworkers, part-time and fixed-term employees, apprentices, interns, casual workers and agency staff (collectively referred to as our staff in this policy).

3. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS POLICY?

- 3.1 Our board of directors (the board) has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with discrimination law. Day-to-day operational responsibility, including periodic review of this policy, has been delegated to Phil Lindsay.
- 3.2 All managers must set an appropriate standard of behaviour, lead by example and ensure that those they manage adhere to the policy and promote our aims and objectives with regard to equal opportunities. Managers will be given access to appropriate training on equal opportunities awareness and equal opportunities recruitment and selection best practice. Phil Lindsay has overall responsibility for equal opportunities training.

- 3.3 If you have any questions about the content or application of this policy, you should contact Phil Lindsay for further information.

4. SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

- 4.1 This policy applies to all aspects of our relationship with our staff and to relations between our staff members at all levels. This includes job advertisements, recruitment and selection, training and development, opportunities for promotion, conditions of service, pay and benefits, conduct at work, disciplinary and grievance procedures, and termination of employment.
- 4.2 We will take appropriate steps to accommodate the requirements of different religions, cultures, and domestic responsibilities.

5. FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION

- 5.1 Discrimination by or against an employee is generally prohibited unless there is a specific legal exemption. Discrimination may be direct or indirect and it may occur intentionally or unintentionally.
- 5.2 Direct discrimination occurs where someone is treated less favourably because of one or more of the protected characteristics set out above. For example, rejecting an applicant on the grounds of their race because they would not "fit in" would be direct discrimination.
- 5.3 Indirect discrimination occurs where someone is disadvantaged by an unjustified provision, criterion or practice that also puts other people with the same protected characteristic at a particular disadvantage. For example, a requirement to work full time puts women at a particular disadvantage, because they generally have greater childcare commitments than men. Such a requirement will need to be objectively justified.
- 5.4 Harassment related to any of the protected characteristics is prohibited. Harassment is unwanted conduct that has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity, or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them. Harassment is dealt with further in your contract of employment incorporating our Disciplinary Procedure.
- 5.5 Victimisation is also prohibited by the Disciplinary Procedure. This is less favourable treatment of someone who has complained or given information about discrimination or harassment, or supported someone else's complaint.

6. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

- 6.1 We aim to ensure that no job applicant suffers discrimination because of any of the protected characteristics above. Our recruitment procedures are reviewed regularly to ensure that individuals are treated on the basis of their relevant merits and abilities. Job selection criteria are regularly reviewed to ensure that they are relevant to the job and are not disproportionate. Shortlisting of applicants should be done by more than one person wherever possible.
- 6.2 Job advertisements should avoid stereotyping or using wording that may discourage groups with a particular protected characteristic from applying. They will be referred to a copy of this policy on our website.
- 6.3 We take steps to ensure that our vacancies are advertised to a diverse labour market.
- 6.4 Applicants should not be asked about health or disability before a job offer is made. There are limited exceptions which should only be used with Human Resources approval. For example:
- (a) Questions necessary to establish if an applicant can perform an intrinsic part of the job (subject to any reasonable adjustments).
 - (b) Questions to establish if an applicant is fit to attend an assessment or any reasonable adjustments that may be needed at interview or assessment.
 - (c) Positive action to recruit disabled persons.
 - (d) Equal opportunities monitoring (which will not form part of the decision-making process).
- 6.5 Applicants should not be asked about past or current pregnancy or future intentions related to pregnancy. Applicants should not be asked about matters concerning age, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, or gender reassignment without the approval of Phil Lindsay (who should first consider whether such matters are relevant and may lawfully be taken into account).
- 6.6 We are required by law to ensure that all employees are entitled to work in the UK. Assumptions about immigration status should not be made based on appearance or apparent nationality. All prospective employees, regardless of nationality, must be able to produce original documents (such as a passport) before employment starts, to satisfy current immigration legislation. The list of acceptable documents is available from the UK Border Agency.
- 6.7 To ensure that this policy is operating effectively, and to identify groups that may be underrepresented or disadvantaged in our organisation, we monitor applicants' ethnic group, gender, disability, sexual orientation, religion and age as part of the recruitment procedure. Provision of this information is voluntary and it will not adversely affect an individual's chances of recruitment or any other decision related to their employment. The information is removed from applications before shortlisting and kept in an anonymised format solely for the purposes stated in this policy. Analysing this data helps us take appropriate steps to avoid discrimination and improve equality and diversity.

7. STAFF TRAINING AND PROMOTION AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

7.1 Staff training needs will be identified through regular staff appraisals. All our staff will be given appropriate access to training to enable them to progress within the organisation and all promotion decisions will be made on the basis of merit.

7.2 Our conditions of service, benefits and facilities are reviewed regularly to ensure that they are available to all our staff who should have access to them and that there are no unlawful obstacles to accessing them.

8. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

8.1 We will ensure that redundancy criteria and procedures are fair and objective and are not directly or indirectly discriminatory.

8.2 We will also ensure that our Disciplinary Procedure and penalties are applied without discrimination, whether they result in disciplinary warnings, dismissal or other disciplinary action.

9. DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION

9.1 If you are disabled or become disabled, we encourage you to tell us about your condition so that we can support you as appropriate.

9.2 If you experience difficulties at work because of your disability, you may wish to contact your line manager to discuss any reasonable adjustments that would help overcome or minimise the difficulty. Your line manager may wish to consult with you and your medical adviser(s) about possible adjustments. We will consider the matter carefully and try to accommodate your needs within reason. If we consider a particular adjustment would not be reasonable we will explain our reasons and try to find an alternative solution where possible.

9.3 We will monitor the physical features of our premises to consider whether they place disabled workers, job applicants or service users at a substantial disadvantage compared to other staff. Where reasonable, we will take steps to improve access for disabled staff and service users.

10. FIXED-TERM EMPLOYEES AND AGENCY WORKERS

We monitor our use of fixed-term employees and agency workers, and their conditions of service, to ensure that they are being offered appropriate access to benefits, training, promotion and permanent employment opportunities. We will, where relevant, monitor their progress to ensure that they are accessing permanent vacancies.

11. PART-TIME WORK

We monitor the conditions of service of part-time employees and their progression to ensure that they are being offered appropriate access to benefits and training and promotion opportunities. We will ensure requests to alter working hours are dealt with appropriately.

12. BREACHES OF THIS POLICY

12.1 If you believe that you may have been discriminated against you are encouraged to raise the matter through our Grievance Procedure. If you believe that you may have been subject to harassment you are also encouraged to raise the matter through our Grievance Procedure. If you are uncertain which applies or need advice on how to proceed you should speak to Phil Lindsay.

12.2 Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated in accordance with the relevant procedure. Staff who make such allegations in good faith will not be victimised or treated less favourably as a result. False allegations which are found to have been made in bad faith will, however, be dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedure.

12.3 Any member of our staff who is found to have committed an act of discrimination or harassment will be subject to disciplinary action under our Disciplinary Procedure. Such behaviour may constitute gross misconduct and, as such, may result in summary dismissal. We take a strict approach to serious breaches of this policy.

13. MONITORING AND REVIEW OF THE POLICY

13.1 This policy is reviewed annually by the board. Recommendations for change should be reported to the board.

13.2 We will continue to review the effectiveness of this policy to ensure it is achieving its objectives.

13.3 You are invited to comment on this policy and recommend ways in which it might be improved by contacting Phil Lindsay.
